Robin Grand has twenty years of experience as litigator acting before state courts and arbitral tribunal (both as party counsel and as arbitrator) and handles proceedings in administrative matters (e.g. proceedings before supervisory authorities such as the FINMA, mutual legal assistance in criminal and administrative matters). He regularly advises national and international clients in commercial law, contract law, company law, labor law, bankruptcy and white collar crime. Robin Grand (admitted to the bar in 1991) was a law clerk with the District Court of Zurich, and then an attorney with Reber, Niedermann and Hagmann. In 1999 he became a partner at Niedermann Rechtsanwälte, which in 2012 merged with Herzog & Gozzi. He holds an LL.M. from Marshall Wythe Law School at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia, and is fluent in English, German and French.
